YOUNG'S CELEBRATED

Y. P. M. COFFEE.

I beg leave to introduce to your notice the above substitute for Coffee, YOUNG'S PURE MALT, the greatest and most economizing substitute for Coffee in the world. It is made from pure selected grain, and malted in the Malt House under our own supervision. Previous to malting, the grain passes thro' a Patent Revolving Screen, separating it from all impurities. In offering it to the public, I do so with a firm conviction that it is the Most Healthy Substitute in the Market.

This Coffee requires less sweetening on account of the saccharine formed in it by the process of malting.

Over two hundred per cent. is saved by using the Y. P. M. Coffee. For sale by the pound, hundred or ton, at one-fourth the price of Rio, Java or Laguayra Coffee.

TRY IT! TRY IT! TRY IT! Grocers, Boarding-house keepers, Hotels, Restaurants and Families will find it to their advantage to give it a trial. One trial will prove the truth of the above assertion.

The Schoolmaster Abroad

EDITED BY SIMON SYNTAX, ESQ

☞Teachers and friends of education are respectfully requested to send communications to the above care of "Bedford Gazette."

School Exhibition at St. Clairsville.

SIMON SYNTAX, ESQ.,

It was my good fortune to be present at a School Exhibition at St. Clairsville, on the evening of the 27th ult., given by the School under the supervision of U. H. Akers, Esq. As it would trespass upon your space too much to enumerate each performance in order, and criticise each actor in his several parts, I shall only notice, particularly the pieces best performed and the names of those who performed them. The rest I shall content myself with noting generally.

After a song "Much good cheer"—sung by the girls, accompanied by the accordeon and flute, the first effort was the "Opening Peace," by T. H. Beckly, who spoke out in a round, full, clear voice, like an orator. This was followed by several of the younger girls and boys who performed their part very well, indeed; and the first scene of the exhibition was wound up by a short, but spirited dialogue—"How to tell bad news"—by John Naugle and W. C. Defibaugh, followed by music.

There was a number of quite young girls and boys whose performances were interspersed through the entire exercises; and who did remarkably well; especially when we take into consideration the fact they were but little above the age required by the school law to make their attendance legal. Among these I will mention, particularly, Bell Beegle, Maggie Naugle, E. J. Moorehead, Laura Wise, Annie Weaver, Paulina Hershman, Lottie King, Emma Honestine, Mary Moorehead, Kate Beegle, Louisa Weaver and Mary Sill. Of this number there was not, perhaps, one above the age of eight years; yet all performed their parts with as much ease as veterans; and not one of all this bevy of little beauties either failed or faltered.

The younger boys did equally well, Frank Gilds, Albert Beckly, Edwin Amick, Frank Herr, William Herr, Hammond Amick, Wm. Beegle, Geo. Carver, Geo. Saurs and Marshall Defibaugh were all able to speak out; and Master Willie Smith read a [illegible] on the Union.

Among the larger boys, there was, of course, that proficiency which age alone can give; but they showed no more evidence of industry than the more juvenile portion of the school. "The Briefless Barrister," by Henry Herr; The last man, by John Naugle; "Married not mated," by Bruce Amick; and a comic piece by Philip Honestine were all well delivered. But the most spirited, and most natural of all the speakers was Henry T. Heinsling; who seems, young as he is, to be a born actor. His every gesture is appropriate and graceful, and he is always in earnest.

The dialogues performed by the girls were all well selected, and well sustained—particularly "An Aspiration," by Tillie Beam and Lottie Sill. And the "Tea Party" by Martha Beegle, Lottie Beegle, Lizzie Naugle and Lottie Sill.

Among the dialogues by the older boys and of those which "brought down the house," were the "Two Quacks," by James Beegle and Wm. Heinsling; "Getting out of the draft," by John Naugle, Bruce Amick, W. C Defibaugh, T. H. Beckley and H. T. Heinsling; the "Live Yankee in London," by H. H. Defibaugh, J. F. Beegle and W. J. Heinsling; "The Will," by Wm. Gilds, Wm. Heinsling, Wm. Beam and Philip Honestine; and the "Runaway match" by the same quartette of good performers.

The Essays read by Lizzie Naugle and Lottie Sill may have been very good, or very bad for all that could be heard of them—the noise at the time drowning everything.

The music between acts was excellent. The songs were good, well sung by pretty little girls with very sweet voices. The instrumental music—particularly the accompaniment with flutes—was very fine, indeed, and reflected much credit on the performers.

I omitted to mention the "Lecture on the Smith family," because it came last; and because it was decidedly "rich." The rather portly gent. with the powerful shirt collar and Bowery neck tie—(John A. B. C. Smith) absolutely covered himself with glory.

Every thing passed off pleasantly, there not being a single failure, or "break down"—a fact which reflects credit, alike, on Teacher and Pupils.

The audience kept as good order as it was possible for them to keep—crowded as they were into so small and uncomfortable a room. Can't the citizens of St. Clairsville, liberal as they are in other things, manage to build a better school house?—I know they can if they take the matter in hands. Such a school deserves a better house and should have it at once.

OBSERVER.

☞Rev. Dr. Breckinridge, of Ky., after giving all the "aid and comfort" in his power to Northern fanaticism, at the commencement of the war, now discovers that he has been completely "taken in" by the "irrepressibles" and writes a long and powerful article for the Danville Review, on negro slavery and civil war, in which he condemns the Emancipation Proclamation of the President, and his violations of the Constitution, as ruinous to the country and subversive of the liberties of the people. What a pity he did not see this thing in the beginning!

CLING to the Constitution, as the shipwrecked mariner clings to the last plank, when night and the tempest close around him.—DANIEL WEBSTER.

Army Correspondence.

BEAUFORT, S. C., March 15, 1863.

FRIEND MEYERS:

Thinking that a line in your valuable columns would be interesting to your readers, specially those that have friends in this department, I drop you a few hasty lines.

The 55th is all right, ready for fight at any time they may be called upon. We are still in our old camp, near Beaufort, where we have been for the last six months.

There are great preparations being made for the expedition that is fitting out to operate against Charleston.

The 10th Army Corps has been reinforced by the 18th Army Corps from North Carolina, under Maj. Gen. Foster.

There was a picket captured on Hilton Head Island,—9 privates and one Lieutenant belonging to the 9th Maine. The rebels are getting very bold here of late. I think we will have to meet them at or near Pocotaligo.

The health of the troops is good, and they are in high spirits over the impending battle. The Bedford county boys are all right and doing well.

We have had a great deal of hard drilling to do, besides fatigue duty since we came here. The first Brigade has built a large fort about one mile from camp on the Shell-Pike, leading from Beaufort to Port Royal Ferry. It is a Strong fortification.

As I have told you all the news, I will close by giving you a list of Co. D, 55th Regt., P. V., as it now stands.

Private Co. D, 55th Reg't, P. V.

The following is said to have passed in a school down east:

"What is the most northern town in the United States?"

"The north pole."

"Who is it inhabited by?"

"By the poles, sir."

"That's right. Now what's the meaning of the word stoop?"

"I don't know sir."

"What do I do when I bend over thus?"

"You scratch your shins, sir."

"What does your father do when he sits down to the table?"

"He axes for the brandy bottle."

"I don't mean that. Well, then, what does your mother do when you sit down to the table?"

"She says she will ring our necks if we spill any grease on the floor."

In one breath Abolitionists say the Democrats are disunionists, and in the next they assert that Democrats are anxious for reunion to gain Southern votes. They don't see the inconsistency of these assertions, but they show to the world that they are disunionists, on the very ground that they fear the Democratic party may be strengthened by the restoration. The whole conduct of the war, and the course of the Abolition press and speakers have shown that they care more to make reunion impossible than otherwise. Democratic votes are their bugaboo.—Ex.

THE CONSCRIPTION ACT.

From the Westmoreland Republican.

We desire to call the serious and candid attention of our readers and the public to the terms and tendency of a bill passed amid the tumultuous scenes of the closing hours of the late Congress, commonly called the "Conscription act." Without entering into minute details, it may be accurately, though briefly stated, that this law provides—First, for placing at the absolute control of the President of the United States all the inhabitants of the country—citizens and foreigners, white and black—capable of bearing arms. Second, that it divides the whole territory of the United States, as indicated by Congressional districts, into military divisions, each commanded by a provost marshal, and all acting under the direction of a Provost Marshal General at Washington. It is declared to be their duty to obey all orders of the Provost Marshal General, and to exercise certain functions of a quasi judicial character, in order to prevent or punish evasion or avoidance of any draft which may be ordered by the President, or even, without reference to the exigency of a particular case, counseling drafted men not to appear.

This law, in effect, creates a forced standing army, composed of all the available strength of the country, and totally destroys the militia of the several States, by robbing them of the material of which it is composed.

The militia is the ancient and safe defence of the people themselves against all enemies, foreign and domestic. It existed from the commencement of the colonization of the country—it defended the early settlers from both Indians and French—at Concord and Lexington it inaugurated the revolution—at Bunker Hill it met, without dishonor, the flower of the British army—and so, throughout the revolution and the war of 1812, it mainly maintained the nation, down even to New Orleans, when Jackson and his militia closed the war in a blaze of glory.

The Constitution of Pennsylvania declares, in regard to the militia, that "the freemen of this Commonwerlth shall be armed and disciplined for its defence.

Has the Federal government the power to annul our Constitution, by destroying the militia?—has it the right to pass this conscription act? That government is not an original sovereign, but an artificial and limited political organization, created by the Constitution, and can exercise those powers only which are conferred by that instrument; which, itself, declared that "the powers not delegated to the United States are reserved to the States respectively or to the people.

No clause in the Constitution gives even semblance of power to make such enactment: on the contrary, the State militia is distinctly recognized, and the control of Congress over it is limited to calling it forth when necessary, and for governing it only when employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the States the appointment of officers and the training of the force. The Constitution, therefore, contains no authority for this absorption of the militia, but actually forbids it, by reserving to the States the powers which substantially control it. In the face of these plain provisions, argument would be superfluous. Any man of common sense must perceive, and any court of law would determine, that the conscription act is unconstitutional and void.

But it is said in this, as in other cases, that necessity justifies—that necessity knows no law. If this argument is good to justify Congress in disregarding the Constitution, it is far better to justify the people in disregarding the law. But in truth it justifies neither. Both are bound to every legal obligation, and neither holds the power of self dispensation. The supremacy of the Constitution and the law is the sole assurance of liberty, security and order, and the usurpers of Washington who deny this doctrine, proclaim themselves tyrants by the act.

But, apart from this, the instant response to the recent draft for three hundred thousand militia, shows that the pretence of necessity is false in fact. If the government needs additional force, why not resort to another draft—legitimate, legal and sure to be obeyed?—Why does the Federal government prefer the course of usurpation—this insolent defiance of the States—this tyranny over the citizens? Is it so, that the blood of our butchered brothers causes a recoil from the battle field, to be met only by Federal bayonets, driving new myriads to slaughter? No—the passage of this act is an equal insult to the courage and patriotism of the people. In the face of all the disasters consequent on the ignorance, the presumption, the corruptions, the vascillations and the jealousies of the administration, they are ready for fresh efforts, any time, any where, for any legitimate object; for they hold enshrined in their heart of hearts the pure flame of patriotism, such as their oppressors know not of, ready to burst and blaze in all consuming fire, before which will perish alike the tyrants of the North and the traitors of the South, and out of which will come a renovated Union and a vindicated Constitution.

If this law could be carried into execution, inasmuch as it would deprive the States of all power of self-defense, its effect would be to lay them prostrate at the feet of the Federal government, which, ceasing to be their agent for the exercise of certain defined and limited functions, would become a vast consolidated military despotism, ready to be seized by any Cæsar, Napoleon, successful soldier, and to be wielded amidst bloody contentions between anarchy and tyranny. Is this to be the heritage of our children! It was not that which from our fathers came to us, and which we possessed in peace until the present administration assumed the power of the government.

If there be any doubt that such would be the legitimate effect of the execution of this law, look at its next grand feature. Every State is to be cut up into military districts, ruled each by a deputy provost marshal, each subject to the Provost Marshal General at Washington, and all appointed by, and responsible to the President. That in certain cases there may be an appeal to the civil tribunals, does not in the least impair that military power which, by its very nature, must be supreme wherever it exists. All this is utterly without warrant and is wholly incompatible with the existence of free government. It is an exaggerated copy of the military organization under which despotism reigns in Russia and France—nay, it infinitely transcends the latter. In this country, under this act, the extent of the conscription is limited only by the will of the President, whereas, in France the conscripts are divided into classes, and only a certain number can be taken in each year. Even the first Napoleon, on his return from Waterloo, found his demand on the Senate refused for anticipation of conscription. The President of the United States has a legislative body more false and foolish than that of France in 1815, and wields a power unknown even to Napolean the Great.

It appears then that the inevitable consequences of the execution of this conscription law must be:

1. The destruction of State-rights, followed by that of the States themselves, by depriving them of the militia, their sole defense:

2. The destruction of popular liberty, by the erection of a military despotism.

What shall be done? Three courses are open:

1. To submit. This is wholly out of the question, unless indeed we have already sunk so low that we are fit only to be slaves.

2. To resist by force. It is only in the extremity of intolerable and irremediable tyranny that resistance by force, to organized government, is allowable, and to that extremity we have not yet arrived. If we ever do, an appeal to arms in self defense would be justifiable before God and man, for without the reserved rights of revolution, tyranny would be eternal.

3. An appeal to the courts of law. This is our true defense. In the sanctuaries of justice we shall find the vindication of our rights. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania will not hesitate to declare the law. By the judgment of the judicial tribunals we are bound—to it we should all submit. We should not hesitate to yield instant and hearty obedience to this authority, which, without passion or prejudice, judges alike legislatures, Presidents and people, and vindicates the Constitution of the country for the good of all.

Receiving from our fathers a Union and Constitution which formed, with the co-ordinate State governments, a political system the most perfect which the world has ever seen, and under the harmonious action of which the nation has progressed in prosperity unparallelled, we will never consent to surrender these great guarantees of freedom and happiness. This was the people's war, to assert the integrity of the Union and to vindicate the supremacy of the Constitution. For the attainment of these objects blood and treasure have been poured out with lavish profusion. The people are ready still, without stint or limit, to proceed to this course of sacrifice. But they have a right to insist upon energy, wisdom, integrity, and regard for their rights in those to whom are confined the great national trusts, and who solemnly promised, at the outbreak of the rebellion, that they would do nothing except that which was legitimate and necessary to protect and defend the Union and the Constitution. If the views which we have expressed in regard to the conscription are correct, to attempt to enforce it would be a violation of repeated and solemn oaths and pledges, and destructive alike to the rights of the States and the liberties of the people—more than this, it would be injurious, if not disastrous, to the cause of the country—for right cannot result from wrong.

Good Receipt for Keeping Sober.

In the rural district in the North of England, the following dialogue lately took place between a friend and a shoemaker who had signed the temperance pledge:

"Well, William, how are you?"

"O, pretty well, I had only eighteen pence and an old ben when I signed, and a few old scores; but now I have about ten pounds in the bank, and my wife and I have lived thro' the summer without getting into debt. But as I am only thirty weeks old yet (as he styled himself,) I cannot be so strong yet, my friend."

"How is it you never signed before?"

"I did sign; but I keep it different now to what I did before, friend?"

"How is this?

"Why, I gae doon on my knees and pray."

Better informed persons might learn a lesson in this respect by applying to the source of strength now possessed by William the shoemaker.

The rules and regulations for the enrollment under the conscription act are now making, at Washington, and the appointment of enrolling boards and provost marshals for the various districts will probably be announced next week.

Rhode Island Election.

The Abolitionists have carried the little State of Rhode Island by a largely decreased majority. In 1860 the majority for Lincoln was nearly 5000; now, the Democratic candidate for Gov. is beaten about 3000. This is a gratifying gain, but the Democratic increase is not sufficient to justify us in hoping that this little patch on the seat of Uncle Sam's breeches, will ever assume any other political hue than the jet black which it has sported ever since the time of the Dorr rebellion. There is no doubt that the Democrats could have succeeded, had they been in possession of the appliances made use of by their opponents. But "Greenbacks" are argumentsepeculiar to Abolitionism, and Kate Chase, the Dulcinea del Toboso of that political Quixote Gov. Sprague, who owns 2000 white slaves in Rhode Island, is the daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury. Hence, Rhode Island spurned Democracy, as she has always done, and fell down at the feet of King Abraham's ebony idol. It may be better as it is; because the Democracy will not now be called upon to answer for the sins of such men as Sprague and Browne and Sheffield, who, after getting into position by Democratic votes, gave all their influence and all their money to the support of abolition men and measures. The Democrats have lost nothing by this election and the Abolitionists have gained a barren victory.

Abolition Electioneering.

If Abraham Lincoln and his minions were half as active and energetic in prosecuting the war against the rebellion as they are in carrying on political campaigns, they would long ere this have broken that os eternis, the "backbone of Secession." But they are mild and tender in their dealings with rebels in arms, compared with their warfare upon the Constitution-loving and secession-and-abolition-hating "Copperheads." In their estimation it is much more important to defeat the Democrats at the polls than the traitors on the field of battle. Hence they let the rebellion "slide" (Banks, forgive!), allow the needy soldiers to go unpaid while they flood the States about to vote with "greenbacks" send that great soldier of the Union, Andy Johnson on an electioneering expedition, and even select such soldiers from the Army as will promise to vote the Abolition ticket and despatch them North on a voting furlough of twenty days. Every appliance that the devilish ingenuity of professional political gamblers can invent, they bring to bear in their canvass for votes. No trick is too mean, no device too low, no scheme too vile and dishonorable for their use. Witness the following operations in regard to the Connecticut election, and blush, if you are an Abolitionist, for the despicable conduct of your leaders:

CARVER HOSPITAL, Washington, Mar. 26.

Dear Sir:

I have come in possession of facts this morning, which are enough to make the heart of every patriot burst with indignation, and honest men to bow their heads in humiliation, to know that fellow men will stoop to deeds so low.

Dr. Storrs, of this hospital, has been busy for a few days past, in ascertaining who of the soldiers in this hospital could be bought to go home and vote against Gov. Seymour. Ten such were found (I speak it to their shame).—Others I am happy to say, could not be bought even with the tempting offer of a twenty day furlough and their expenses paid.

Many good and faithful soldiers, who have served our Government honestly from the commencement of this rebellion, are refused when a father, mother, wife, brother or sister lies upon a death-bed. To what a depth of infamy will not the tricksters of a death-struggling party go.

ARLINGTON, Va., March, 28.

There is a devil of a time here. Furloughs are granted to those that vote for Buckingham, but not one for Seymour! Ten are allowed to go from each company. Look out for those who have no right to vote.—Cor. Hartford Times.

FIVE-TWENTY U. S. LOAN.—We insert an advertisement in our paper of to-day, by Reed and Schell, of this place, as subscription Agents of this loan, which will afford farmers and others a good opportunity to make safe and profitable investments.

Bedford Democratic Club.

The Bedford Democratic Club met in the Court House on Saturday evening, April 4th, 1863. The President called the House to order. The minutes of the former meeting were read and approved. On motion the Constitution was read, and thirty-seven voters came forward and signed it.

The meeting was then addressed by Col. J. W. Tate, Dr. John Compher, and Wm. Lyon, Esq.

A committee consisting of Dr. J. Compher, John Palmer and B. F. Meyers, Esqs., was appointed by the President, for the purpose of procuring speakers to address the Club.

On motion the Club adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, the 2d of May, 1863.

ISAAC MENGEL, President.

An Infamous Order.

Whilst the Abolitionists are using every effort to corrupt the political sentiments of the soldiers, bribing them to turn against the Democrats by promises of promotion and by granting them voting furloughs, it seems that no Democratic officer is to be permitted even to furnish his men with tickets. The Army is a field of operations which Abolition politicians mean to cultivate exclusively, and no Democrat is to be allowed to "put his hoe in there." We are for equal rights in the Army, as well as everywhere else, and our Democratic soldiers must and shall have the right to vote their sentiments. The following order should meet the condemnation of every American citizen who has any respect for his birth-right and should consign to lasting infamy the men who dared to make it.

"WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington, Mar. 13, 1863.
SPECIAL ORDERS No. 19.

34. By direction of the President, the following named officer is hereby dismissed from the service of the United States: Lieutenant A. J. Edgerly, 4th New Hampshire Volunteers, for circulating "Copperhead Tickets," and doing all in his power to promote the success of the rebel cause in his state,

By order of the Secretary of War,
L. THOMAS, Adj't General."

Gov. Tod, of Ohio, has been arrested for kidnapping Dr. Olds, of that State. The Grand Jury of Fairfield county, found a true bill against the Governor, and he was required to give bail for his appearance at the next term of Court. Thank God! the spirit of freemen has yet a dwelling place in one county of the terror-ridden North.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Rev. B. H. Hunt will deliver a lecture before the Teachers' Institute on Friday evening, 10th inst. The public are invited to attend.

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whreas, The Senate of the United States, devoutly recognized the Supreme Authority and just Government of Almighty God, in all the affairs of men and nations, has by a resolution, requested the President to designate and set apart a day of National prayer and humiliation.

And whereas, It is the duty of nations as well as of men, to own their dependance upon the overruling power of God, to confess their sins and transgressions in humble sorrow, yet with assured hope that genuine repentence will lead to mercy and pardon, and to recognize the sublime truth, announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord.

And, insomuch as we know that, by His divine law, nations, like individuals, are subject to punishments and chastisements in this world, may we not justly fear that the awful calamity of civil war, which now desolates the land, may be but a punishment inflicted upon us for our presumptuous sins, to the needful end of our national reformation as a whole people? We have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom or virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us!

It behooves us, then, to humble ourselves before the offended power, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

Now, therefore, in compliance with the request and fully concurring in the views of the Senate, I do, by this my proclamation, designate and set apart Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1863, as a day of national humiliation, fasting and prayer. And I do hereby request all the people to abstain on that day from their ordinary secular pursuits, and to unite at their several places of public worship and their respective homes, in keeping the day holy to the Lord, and devoted to the humble discharge of the religious duties proper to that solemn occasion.

All this being done, in sincerity and truth, let us then rest humbly in the hope, authorized by the Divine teachings, that the united cry of the nation will be heard on high, and answered with blessings, no less than the pardon of our national sins, and restoration of our now divided and suffering country to its former happy condition of unity and peace.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

[L. S.]

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

A Great Statesman Speaking to the People—Alexander Hamilton on Coercion and Civil War.

The following is an extract from a speech delivered in 1788 of that great statesman and true patriot, Alexander Hamilton, in the Convention that was held in the State of New York, for the ratification of the Constitution of the United States. It will be remembered that Hamilton was also a member of the Convention which framed the Constitution:—

"The States can never lose their powers till the whole people of America are robbed of their liberties. These must go together. They must support each other or meet a common fate. I wish the committee to remember that the Constitution under examination is framed upon truly Republican principles, and that, as it is expressly designed for a common protection and the general welfare of the United States, it must be utterly repugnant to this Constitution to subvert the State Governments or oppress the people. The coercion of States is one of the maddest projects that was ever devised. A failure of compliance will never be confined to a single State. This being the case, can we suppose it wise to hazard a civil war? It would be a nation at war with itself. Can any reasonable man be well disposed towards a Government that makes war and carnage the only means of supporting itself—a Government that can exist only by the sword? Every such war must involve the innocent with the guilty. This single consideration should not be inefficient to dispose every peacable citizen against such a Government.

Important From South Carolina.

The Attack on Charleston—Our Troops Landed on John's Island—Skirmishing Commenced—Rebel Pickets Driven In

FORTRESS MONROE, April 5.—Yesterday's Richmond Dispatch says that Pensacola was fired by the Union soldiers about the 23d ult., and most of the town destroyed. The soldiers are going to reinforce Gen. Banks.

STIRRING NEWS FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

The enemy have landed in force on Seabrook's or John's Island. Five gunboats and several transports are lying off the island. Skirmishing has already taken place between ours and the enemies' pickets. Our pickets are driven in, and the Federals are advancing.

General Hagood has ordered all the women and children and non-combatants removed from Adams' Run, which is twenty miles from Seabrook Island.

CINCINNATI, April 4.—Passengers who arrived at Cairo yesterday, state that the late movement on Haines' Bluff was a failure. The fleet and transports had returned to Young's Point. Gen. Grant succeeded in placing a battery of 84-pounder Parrotts beyond the levee in a position to easily reach Vicksburg, and was about to open the bombardment.

A PEACE PARTY IN THE SOUTH

Among the Southern items of news received, is one reporting the formation of a peace party, headed by Henry S. Foote, Alexander Masley, editor of the Richmond Whig, and others. Resolutions on the subject will probably pass the lower House of Congress before the adjournment. It is said that the course of the Richmond Enquirer is disapproved of by many of the leading men of Congress.

The Chattanooga Rebel says a blow will be struck before June, which will unfetter the long manacled State of Kentucky.

Reports from Columbus say that a force of 700 rebels was discovered yesterday, marching towards Hickman, with the intention of taking that place. Gen. Asboth started down this morning with 600 men, and a large force is ready to leave at a moment's notice.

FUNK.—On the 2d inst., Miss Hester Funk, in the 67th year of her age.

SHANNON.—In Bedford, on the 2d inst., Binnie Benedict, second daughter of Oliver and Ginnie Shannon, aged about 5 years.

In the death of this interesting child, we have another evidence of the uncertainty of life, a few short days changed her from the brightness and bloom of health, to a lifeless and inanimate corpse. The lovely bud has been transplanted from Earth to bloom amongst the roses of Heaven: but those endearing little epithets with which she was wont to address those she loved, are engraven upon the hearts of many, who will hold her in sweet remembrance. That youthful mind had already, by parental love, been impressed with the truths of our holy religion—and that infant voice, taught to sing the praises of her Saviour. Amidst all her sufferings she sweetly sang "I want to be an angel," and exclaimed: "Mamma, dear, I am going to God." Deeply do those fond stricken parents feel this to be a harsh world, where affection knows no place to treasure up its loved one's but the cold grave—they have the condolence of many kind friends, but their sorrow is too deep for any but God to lift. He has seen fit in His inscrutable Providence to send the affliction, and will also pour the oil of consolation into their troubled hearts. Little Binnie is now being taught in the school of Heaven, with little companions who had gone before, to sing in sweeter, louder strains, the love of that Saviour who took little children in His arms and blessed them.

"She cannot come unto you, but ye can go unto her."

DR. SWEETS'

INFALLIBLE

FOR RHEUMATISM, GOUT, NEURALGIA, LUMBAGO, STIFF NECK AND JOINTS, SPRAINS, BRUISES, CUTS AND WOUNDS, PILES, HEADACHE, AND ALL RHEUMATIC AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.

For all of which it is a speedy and certain remedy, and never fails. This Liniment is prepared from the recipe of Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut, the famous bone setter, and has been used in his practice for more than twenty years with the most astonishing success.

AS AN ALLEVIATOR OF PAIN, it is unrivaled by any preparation before the public, of which the most skeptical may be convinced by a single trial.

This Liniment will cure rapidly and radically, Rheumatic Disorders of every kind, and in thousands of cases where it has been used it has never been known to fail.

FOR NEURALGIA, it will afford immediate relief in every case, however distressing.

It will relieve the worst cases of HEADACHE in three minutes and is warranted to do it.

TOOTHACHE also will it cure instantly.

FOR NERVOUS DEBILITY AND GENERAL LASSITUDE arising from imprudence or excess, this Liniment is a most happy and unfailing remedy. Acting directly upon the nervous tissues it strengthens and revivifies the system, and restores it to elasticity and vigor.

FOR PILES.—As an external remedy, we claim that it is the best known, and we challenge the world to produce an equal. Every victim of this distressing complaint should give it a trial, for it will not fail to afford immediate relief, and in a majority of cases will effect a radical cure.

QUINSY AND SORE THROAT are sometimes extremely malignant and dangerous, but a timely application of this Liniment will never fail to cure.

SPRAINS are sometimes very obstinate, and enlargement of the joints is liable to occur if neglected. The worst case may be conquered by this Liniment in two or three days.

BRUISES, CUTS, WOUNDS, SORES, ULCERS, BURNS AND SCALDS, yield readily to the wonderful healing properties of DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, when used according to directions. Also, CHILBLAINS, FROSTED FEET, AND INSECT BITES AND STINGS.

Dr. Stephen Sweet, of Connecticut,

the Great Natural Bone Setter.

A FRIEND IN NEED. TRY IT.

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT, as an external remedy, is without a rival, and will alleviate pain more speedily than any other preparation. For all Rheumatic and Nervous disorders it is truly infallible, and as a curative for Sores, Wounds, Sprains, Bruises, &c., its soothing, healing and powerful strengthening properties, excite the just wonder and astonishment of all who have ever given it a trial. Over one thousand certificates of remarkable cures, performed by it within the last two years attest the fact.

To Horse Owners!

DR. SWEET'S INFALLIBLE LINIMENT FOR HORSES is unrivaled by any, and in all cases of lameness, arising from Sprains, Bruises or Wrenching, its effect is magical and certain. Harness or Saddle Galls, Scratches, Mange, &c., it will also cure speedily. Spavin and Ringbone may be easily prevented and cured in their incipient stages, but confirmed cases are beyond the possibility of a radical cure. No case of the kind, however, is so desperate or hopeless but it may be alleviated by this Liniment, and its faithful application will always remove the Lameness, and enable the horse to travel with comparative ease.

Every Horse Owner

should have this remedy at hand, for its timely use at the first appearance of Lameness will effectually prevent those formidable diseases, to which all horses are liable, and which render so many otherwise valuable horses nearly worthless.

DR. SWEET'S

Infallible Liniment,

IS THE

SOLDIER'S FRIEND,

And thousands have found it truly

A Friend in Need.

ENTIRELY VEGETABLE

NO ALCOHOLIC PREPARATION!

A PURE TONIC MEDICINE.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

CELEBRATED

German Bitters,

PREPARED BY

Dr. C. M. JACKSON, Phil'a., Pa.

WILL EFFECTUALLY CURE

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE

Chronic or nervous debility, diseases of the kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness, or blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, fulness or weight in the Stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the head hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, Fever and dull pain in the head, deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

And will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILLIOUS FEVER, &c.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL, OR BAD WHISKEY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whiskey, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big bellied kegs under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivaled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN

PHYSICIANS,

AND

CITIZENS,

Testifying, of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If you do, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.
Philadelphia, June 23, 1861.

From the Rev. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined, but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD.

From the wife of ALDERMAN WUNDER, Germantown.

Germantown, June 1, 1861.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—SIR:—It gave me pleasure two years ago, to give you a certificate, testifying what the German Bitters had done for me. I am now perfectly cured of all those diseases your medicine professes to cure, viz:—Dyspepsia, Chronic and Nervous debility, diseases of the Kidneys, &c. The powerful influence it exerts upon Nervous prostration is surprising. I have been consulted frequently in reference to your Bitters, and without hesitation, have recommended it for the above complaints, and in every instance it has effectually cured. Your medicine has a great reputation in Germantown and is now sold in every Drug store, and in most of the Grocery stores here. If any one should question what I say, let them come to Germantown, and I will prove to their satisfaction, that the Bitters have cured in this vicinity more than twenty cases of the above disease. Respectfully,

HANNAH WUNDER.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND.

Always Ready.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Extraordinary Military Salve.

Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these, the Soldier must endure Mothers, remember this, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a single pot of this all healing and cooling Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiff joints leave them supple, strong and vigorous, while for,

Sabre Cuts and Gunshot Wounds,

it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestive of inflamation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of Volunteers.

You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at nigh exposep to drenching rains and chill night air, i often seized with most VIOLENT PAINS, COUG and SUFFOCATING HOARSENESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplie with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT all danger is averted. a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing and DANGEROUS COUGH. Therefore we say to the whole Army, Soldier's Attention!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. Thee PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Campe and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies, of the SOLDIERS IN CAMP,

Diarrhea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores & Scrofulous Eruptions, al disappear like a charm before these PILLS and OINTMENT, and now while the cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequantly get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find a sure remedy there for all the casualities of the battle field. How many thousand of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cts, and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

WASHINGTON HOUSE,
BEDFORD, PA.

MRS. S. FILLER would respectfully announce to her friends in Bedford County, and to the public generally, that she has leased, for a term of years, the large and convenient brick hotel, at the corner of Pitt and Juliana streets, Bedford, Pa., known as the "WASHINGTON HOUSE," and lately kept by MRS. COOK. This house is being thoroughly refitted and refurnished, and is now open for the reception of guests. Visitors to the "BEDFORD SPRINGS" and persons attending Court, will find this house a pleasant and comfortable temporary home.—Every attention will be paid to the comfort and accommodation of guests. The table will at all times be supplied with the best the markets afford. Charges moderate.

Extensive stabling is attached to this hotel, and careful and competent hostler will be in attendance. Special attention will be paid to the accomodation of the farming community.

A Lecture

TO YOUNG MEN!

Just published, in a sealed envelope. Price 6 cts.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally, Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the Green Book, &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.—This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.
